Attached are explanations and codes the U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) uses to indicate the status of suspended and debarred individuals and/or companies in conducting business with the federal government.

When accessing GSA's Suspension and Debarment List on the Internet, these codes and explanations can help your staff and local agencies determine whether a company or individual is precluded from doing business that involves federal dollars with the state or local agency because of a federal suspension or debarment action.

If you have any questions, please call Melissa Garza, Program Analyst, Summer Food Service Program Unit at (916) 322-5885, or call the toll-free message line at (800) 333-5675.
